The Authors

Ken Marks, 179, Long John Drive, Hendersonville, North Carolina, USA

Tom Findley, Leo A Daly, Omaha, Nebraska, USA

Abstract

Purpose – To report on the perceived success or failure of different aspects of Lied Library after three years of operation.

Design/methodology/approach – Major design concepts, the location of services, the functioning of physical spaces and systems and the reaction of the campus community were identified in describing the success or failure of components of Lied Library.

Findings – With the exception of one or two components of the physical structure Lied Library has been an unqualified success positioning the library faculty and staff to continue evolving services and collections in response to the changing demands.
